It is said that there are 5,000 red headed widows in Texas. Somehow or other we always did think Texas was a good State to go to.

The United States once guaranteed the integrity of Korea, but at that time Japan hadn't amounted to much. As Japan now wants to annex Korea, we have a right to tell Korea that we are tired guaranteeing her integrity.

Old Captain Diederieck, of Oyster Bay, who has sailed in all seas, says he once trained a school of sharks to eat out of his hand. He probably knows that land sharks would even do better than that. They would eat him out of house and home.

The Washington Star remarks: "Judging from the intense silence now pervading the political precincts of Ohio, Secretary Taft and Senator Foraker must be sitting in the same hammock, clasping hands." Taft may actually be a good enough politician to be courting Foraker's favor.

Col. Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, agrees with The Star that the Republican nominee for President next year will be Secretary William H. Taft. As soon as President Roosevelt decided not to stand for another nomination, we picked out Taft as the Republican party's logical and marked man for the Presidency.

The Greensboro Tar Heel (Rep.) says: "The Taft boom seems to have gone against the bumpers and bursted. There is plenty of time for several other booms and boomlets to run the same course." Might be the case with the Taft boom among North Carolina Republicans, but throughout the Republic the signs are very different. The Tar Heel may be ruining its chances to make a break for the bandwagon when it gets to moving right.

London Tit-Bits is authority for this: "The Korean woman who speaks or even nods on her wedding day immediately becomes an object of ridicule and loses caste. Neither threat nor prayer must move her, for the whole household is ever on the alert to catch a single muttered syllable." No doubt she humors the joke for the one day, but during the balance of her life lets the old man know that she is no dummy.

The prohibition craze seems to have struck Georgia like an avalanche. A legislator has introduced a bill prohibiting a club man from even keeping his own bottle in his locker at the club. An Atlanta dispatch says it is claimed if the State prohibition bill passes, practically all the soft drinks manufactured in Georgia will have to go out of business. A small quantity of alcohol is required for the purpose of preserving the syrups, which are the basis of them, and with State prohibition in effect it will be impossible to secure it.

DEFENCE CONCLUDES

All Testimony Heard in First of Alleged Lynching Cases From Anson.

THE TRIAL AT MONROE.

Efforts Continued to Discredit Senior Kendall, Who Turned State's Evidence—Judge Peebles to Continue Court in Union.

(By Associated Press.)

Charlotte, N. C., July 18.—The defence in the case of the twenty citizens of Anson county charged with lynching J. V. Johnson in May, 1906, concluded the introduction of testimony today and argument was begun. The case will reach the jury tomorrow.

A score or more of witnesses were put on the stand today in the effort to discredit the testimony of Sheriff Bogan, of Anson county, and H. D. Kendall, Sr., the lyncher, who turned State's evidence.

Fred Hargrave, a Wadesboro merchant, declared that he was aroused by the lynching party and saw neither Kendall nor the horse. Kendall swore that he rode, but on cross-examination Hargrave admitted that the night was too dark to recognize either man or horse.

Other witnesses, including Dr. J. M. Belk, of Monroe, testified that Kendall was erratic and untruthful. Coroner Fenton, of Anson county, was corroborated by several witnesses in the statement that Sheriff Bogan stated after the lynching that he had not recognized any member of the mob. Cross-examined, each witness admitted that it was not a direct denial, but an evasive answer given by the sheriff. Coroner Fenton cut down the corpse of Johnson and found the left hand cut off and the body full of bullet holes. The trail of blood led from the Wadesboro jail to the woods. Dr. T. F. Misenheimer, of Morven, partially corroborated the alibi set up by the defendant Jones that he was at home the night of the lynching.

Other witnesses testified to the good character of Jones. Solicitor Robinson opened the argument to the jury, the court allowing each side four hours to present its case. Judge Peebles announced that the cases of Zeke Lewis, Otis Martin and W. C. Dunn, indicted lynchers, would be taken up in the order named.

It was expected that Judge Peebles could not continue the special term for the trial of the alleged lynchers longer than this week, as he was appointed regularly to hold McDowell court next week, but Governor Glenn, at, Raleigh today, designated Judge C. C. Lyon, of Bladen, to hold McDowell court, in place of Judge Peebles, who will continue the trial here until all the cases are disposed of, or some other action taken. There are 23 indictments, all told, and at the rate taken by the Jones case now on trial, it will require nearly twenty weeks to complete all of them.

SOUTH WILMINGTON CARS.

Schedule Put in Operation Yesterday Afternoon to Bag Factory.

Cars were yesterday evening at 6 o'clock placed in operation on the South Wilmington extension to the factory of the Willard Bag & Manufacturing Company, on Marstellar street. From 6:45 A. M. to 10:40 P. M. daily until further notice there will be a ten minute schedule on the line connecting with the regular line cars at Front and Castle and giving a service for five cents to any part of the city. Tickets to the beach may also be purchased on this car, so that for 35 cents a passenger may board the car almost at Greenfield mill pond and go direct to the beach for the same fare that obtains from Front and Princess. The first car over the new extension was pretty well crowded yesterday evening and the people in that section are enthusiastic over the extension of the service into that end of the town. Persons going for a ride on the city cars will find a new field to explore by taking a jaunt out to the bag factory and to Greenfield mill pond which is almost in sight.

TWO COLONISTS IN COURT

Polish Jews Before Justice Bornemann in Trial Involving Money Transaction in Pittsburg, Pa.—Arrangemnets for Settlement.

There was a babel of tongues yesterday afternon in Justice Bornemann's court. Two Polish Jews, from the colony recently established at Castle Haynes, were before the court, one charging the other with cheating and defrauding him out of a hundred dollars. The warrant had been sworn out the day before in Justice Bornemann's office and yesterday morning the justice sent Deputy Sheriff A. T. Piver up to the colony to make the arrest. The two men, the prosecutor and defendant, reached town about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and the trial was immediately called. The prisoner was A. Panasiowitz and the prosecutor was Frank Rajewski. The former spoke English rather fluently and incidentally seven other languages, which at times he would mix in his excitement, producing no end of merriment in the magistrate's court.

It appears that the colonists have just arrived at Castle Haynes, and the alleged false pretense in obtaining the money from Rajewski was in a transaction at Pittsburg, Pa., where Panasiewitz sold to Rajewski a certificate of stock in the "Home Brewing Co., of Grafton, W. Va.," which corporation had at the time gone out of business, the certificate of stock being worthless. Rajewski alleges that the other man with the long name had represented to him that the stock would pay him a large dividend. He found this was untrue upon investigation and had a warrant issued for the stock vender in Pittsburg, but before an officer could get service on him, he had joined the colonist party for North Carolina. Rajewski followed him and soon after arriving here had the warrant issued in Justice's Borneman's court, also exhibiting the warrant that he had secured in Pittsburg. It was decided to hold the prisoner on the latter warrant until the Pittsburg authorities could be notified and he was locked up in jail. His incarceration brought him to time and soon after his commitment, he sent word to Rajewski that if he would withdraw the charges, he would give him a check for the amount in controversy and pay up the costs. This was agreeable to Rajewski, who, however, told Panasiewitz that he would have to stay in jail until he could telegraph to Pittsburg and see whether or not the check was any good. The check was tendered and the Pittsburg bank telegraphed last night. The prisoner will probably get his liberty today, as he is said to have considerable amount of money in Pittsburg.

C. D. Weeks, Esq., appeared for the prosecution yesterday.

LUMINA IMPROVEMENTS.

Additional Chairs and Settees for Popular Pleasure Resort.

In order to accommodate the constantly increasing crowds at Lumina the Consolidated Company has just placed an order for 250 additional chairs and 36 large settees. Both the settees and chairs should arrive during the next week, and will add 500 to the seating capacity of the popular "pleasure palace." A large number of chairs and settees were ordered and placed early in the season, but the crowds at Lumina have become so large that greater accommodations are imperative.

The new chairs ordered will be placed on the inside verandas and will be fastened to the floor facing the ball room. These seats will be for the acommodation of those wishing to sit near the dance floor to watch the dancers. They will also prove a great convenience to the dancers themselves. It is an arrangement that is found at many of the large dancing pavilions in the North.

The number of visitors to Lumina is increasing every day. Wednesday night the largest crowd of the season visited Lumina. There was also a large crowd last night. All the hotels and boarding houses on the beach are well filled now with out-of-town visitors, and most of them will be found at Lumina evenings. The crowds from the city are also large each evening, and the present season has apparently lost nothing by the Exposition or other counter-attractions elsewhere.

PRITCHARD ON SCENE

Trial of Ticket Agent Green Proceeded at Raleigh Without Federal Interference.

IN THE STATE COURTS

Judge Hastened Back to Asheville, Presumably to Look After Men Sentenced to Roads For Rate Violation—Development.

(By Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 18.—The trial of the Southern Railway and T. E. Green, ticket agent, for violating the State law in selling tickets at a rate above 2 1-4 cents, ordered by the last Legislature, went on today without intereference from the Federal court, though Judge Pritchard came from Asheville with the expectation of hearing a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Green. This was not tried, as Green is held in the custody of the State court and Judge Pritchard left for Asheville this afternoon.

In the trial in the State court all the morning was taken in securing a jury. In the afternoon the State introduced witnesses to show that Green had sold a ticket at a rate exceeding 2 1-4 cents, and that the Southern Railway, through General Passenger Agent Tayloe, had ordered the old rate to continue. The defence introduced no witness contending that the excess rate included payment for the coupon ticket worth the excess of the State rate was held valid. Argument will be concluded in the morning.

Judge Pritchard's quick return to Asheville is supposed to mean the issue of writs of habeas corpus for the release of Wood and Wilson, agents of the Southern Railway, sent to the roads for thirty days by the police justice for selling tickets above 2 1-4 cents. Pritchard is expected to return here with a habeas corpus writ if Green is found guilty and imprisoned.

Raleigh, July 18.—Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of the United States Circuit Court, arrived here on an early train today from Asheville, but no process of any kind issued from him during the forenoon to interrupt the progress of the trial of the Southern Railway Company and Agent T. E. Green, for violation of the North Carolina rate act, pending in the Wake Superior Court before Judge Long.

Judge Long convened Wake Court at 10 o'clock and directed that the trial proceed. Counsel for the Southern procured the admission of a great number of affidavits in connection with their pleas of jurisdiction as between the State and the Federal Court, being affidavits that were presented to Judge Pritchard in procuring the original injunction proceeding against the Corporation Commission and other State officers. At the request of Justice for the prosecution, all affidavits by the State in the same connection were also made a part of the record.

Judge Long directed that the selection of the jury proceed, and this was undertaken in a dilatory manner on the part of counsel for the defense, there being evidently a play for time. In fact, in entering on the trial F. H. Busbee, for the defense, statd that general appearance on the part of the defendants was only made in order that the trial might proceed for the time, the right being reserved to withdraw from the hearing at any time. All manner of questions were asked jurors to impeach their qualification to serve, including the question of their having read the Raleigh morning paper or the recent published interview of Governor Glenn regarding the necessity and justice of the prosecution of the defendants.

The jury was selected by the hour for the noon recess, and the afternoon was taken up with the introduction of testimony, this having been completed by the hour for adjournment at 6 o'clock this evening. Argument will be commenced to the jury tomorrow morning upon the convening of court. It is learned that only two members of counsel will speak on a side, each being limited to half an hour. Mr. Busbee will open for the defence and ex-Governor Aycock and E. J. Justice for the State will follow him. General Counsel Thom, of the Southern Railway, will conclude for the defence.

Judge Pritchard, during the morning, when the trial of Green was being peremptorily called in the State Court, was in conference with District Judge Purnell in the Federal building, not a stone's throw removed from the State Court. General Counsel Thom and other counsel for the Southern were present at the conference of the Federal judges for a part of the time. Judge Pritchard left in the afternoon without apparently having accomplished anything by his visit. There was an intimation that the cases in the State court will be allowed to proceed to a conviction, and that Judge Pritchard would then return and hear the petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The declaration is freely made that "nobody is going to the chain-gang," sentence or no sentence. Col. W. B. Rodman, division counsel of the Southern, accompanied Judge Pritchard back to Asheville this afternoon, presumably to take a hand in the conviction and sentence of the ticket agent there.

When the jury was completed General Counsel Thom, for the Southern,

GREAT PARADE OF ELKS

Twenty Thousand in Line at Philadelphia Yesterday—Heat Intense and Many Prostrations Among Spectators—Proceedings.

(By Associated Press.)

Philadelphia, July 18.—The parade of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks today was marked during its progress by the prostration from heat of an army of persons, estimated by the police and hospital authorities at 2,500. Never has there been such a wholesale prostration of people in this city. For six hours the police, ambulance surgeons and the Red Cross nurses were kept on the run, looking at persons who collapsed under the scorching rays of the sun and largely because of their excellent service, but one case resulted fatally. James Rowler, aged 44 years, of this city, died in a hospital after being stricken in the street. The other stricken persons are said to be in good condition with no prospect of fatal results.

The parade ground was on Broad street for a distance of three miles north and the same distance south of the city hall. The paraders countermarched the last three miles back to the city hall, so that they traversed upward of 7 miles, yet few of those overcome by the heat were in the line of march. Those who succumbed were among the spectators, jammed along the street in a solid mass from one end of the line to the other. The temperature hovering around 90 degrees the humidity was excessive and as a consequence people sweltered. Among the few paraders who were overcome were J. Harrington Walker, of St. Paul, Minn., and Henry J. Walter, exalted ruler of the Philadelphia Lodge of Elks. The other victims were chiefly from this city and the surrounding territory. The police secured records of more than 1,000 heat cases, which were handled by them or taken to the hospitals, but hundreds were cared for in the dispensaries, where no record of the cases were made while the police surgeons and nurses cared for innumerable others.

Every attention was given to the spectators to see that they were protected, but it required four hours for the marchers to pass a given point and the eager people stood in the hot sun for two hours or more before the parade started. The total number in the line of march is conservatively estimated at 20,000 men with about 125 floats.

About one hundred lodges from cities and towns from the Atlantic to the Pacific participated in the parade. There were ten divisions, and were under command of Chief Marshal John P. Sullivan, of New Orleans, Grand Esquire of the Elks. The Philadelphia, the host of the occasion, had the right of line with 1,800 men.

The Grand Lodge installed its newly-elected officers tonight at which time it was anounced that at a previous session the State Associations of Elks had been given official recognition. This decision on the part of the Grand Lodge settles a fight that has been waged for two years. The State association is restricted in its work, and may not take up legislative matters or interfere with legislative affairs in the subordinate lodges. Its principal work will be along charitable and fraternal lines.

MR. ROBERT B. BURRISS DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon at His Home After Long Illness.

Mr. Robert B. Burriss, a well known young man of this city lately employed as a foreman at the Delgado mills near the city, died yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at his home, No. 714 North Ninth street. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burriss, of Wilmington, and was in the 35th year of his age at the time of his death. He was well liked by all who knew him and his death will be learned of with regret. There are surviving his mother and father; two brothers, Messrs. I. N. and J. B. Burriss; four sisters, Mrs. W. R. Hall, Mrs. Frances A. Herring, Mrs. E. F. Fales and Miss Arietta Love Burriss. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the residence by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. Kenneth D. Holmes, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church. Mr. Burriss was a member of Cherokee Tribe No. 9, Improved Order of Red Men and the burial will be with the honors of that fraternity.

In addition to the above relatives Mr. Burriss is also survived by his wife and two children.

LUMBERMEN'S MEETING.

Inter-State Convention at Jacksonville Fla., Monday This Week.

Editor Z. W. Whitehead, of the Southern Lumber Journal, has returned from Jacksonville, Fla., where on Monday he attended the inter-State meeting of lumber manufacturers. He says it was a most representative gathering and that the number represented in person and in proxy reached 434 by actual count. These, if stood up two feet apart, Mr. Whitehead calculates, would have formed a line nearly a half mile in length.

Mr. Whitehead says the convention decided to close down the mills in all the South Atlantic States during the month of August. This is for the purpose of curtailing production, it being unprofitable to cut lumber at present prices from high priced stumpage. Many strong and interesting speeches were made by manufacturers from North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama.

BUILDING SMASHED

Runaway Private Car Rammed One End of Passenger Station at Shed Yesterday

COUPLING FAILED TO WORK

Coaches Being Shifted Failed to Connect Up and One Came Rolling Back Into Building on Concrete Floor—None Injured.

The failure of a coupling to connect when a string of coaches were being shifted by a yard engine under the passenger shed of the Atlantic Coast Line on North Front street, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, resulted in the demolition of one end of passenger station by the private car of Mr. A. W. Anderson, general superintendent of the road, which was pushed off the end of the track under the shed and which came back on the concrete pavement, tearing away the enclosure affording an entrance to the trains and ramming the two-story brick building with considerable violence and causing a damage variously estimated at from $300 to $500. Nearly a score of clerks and draftsmen, including one or more lady stenographers, in the offices of Mr. C. L. Meister and Mr. A. B. Corinth, assistant superintendent of motive power, were on the second floor of the building and had a narrow escape from injury. Fortunately no one was in the least hurt and the car of Mr. Anderson stood the shock without injury, all the damage being to the passenger station.

The accident occurred just after the 3:45 P. M. train for Columbia had pulled out from under the shed, else there might have been a dozen or more persons standing in the track of the runaway car or in the colored waiting room into which the end of the car was jammed. As it was there was only a colored woman in the waiting room and she escaped with nothing more than a severe fright, which was shared in to some extent by all others in the vicinity. The walls on the northeast corner of the building were knocked down and the woodwork on the inside torn up to some extent. The car was struck by the shifting engine some distance up the track and came back with great violence, tearing away the fence which encloses the shed and striking the corner of the building with a crash that was heard at the general offices some distance away. Later after office hours, hundreds of the clerks in the building and others visited the scene of the wreck and dilated upon the probable consequence had the car had a little more momentum and been jammed clean through the station. A wrecking crew was soon put to work and the car of Mr. Anderson was back on the siding. That its construction is all that could be desired in any kind of a smash-up was abundantly testified in the manner in which it came out of the runaway yesterday afternoon.

BOYS BRIGADE OFF.

Annual Encampment Begins Saturday Morning at Southport.

Messrs. J. A. Price, T. K. Curtis and Jesse Croom, an advance squad from the Boys' Brigade, left yesterday morning for Southport to put everything in readiness for the annual encampment of the command which will begin there tomorrow. They were accompanied by several laborers who will pitch the tents on the garrison and make all other preparations for the soldiers to follow. The Brigade will leave the city at 4 o'clock Saturday morning on the steamer Wilmington and it is expected that there will be fully 35 men in line. General orders covering the movement of the troops will be issued by Colonel Walker Taylor, the commander, this afternoon or tomorrow morning. Dr. J. M. Wells, chaplain of the organization; Mr. J. D. Nutt, Captain W. F. Robertson and other friends of the command and the boys, expect to be in camp some of the time the Brigade is away. During the absence of Colonel Taylor First and Second Lieutenants Wilbur Dosher and Francis Garrison will be in command, Captain Jos. J. Loughlin being unable to be with the command this encampment. It is hoped that all employers of members of the Brigade will be considerate enough of the members of the Brigade to let them off for this outing which will redound to their benefit in increased faithfulness by the boys when they return.

RUNAWAY AT ATKINSON.

Young People Had Exciting Experience Behind Unruly Horse.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., July 18.—Wednesday afternoon Mr. Steve Hawes and Miss B. B. Lucas were out driving and met with quite an exciting accident. They had a spirited horse hitched to a runabout and not knowing that the animal was afraid of a locomotive, rode up to see the train pass. The horse became frightened and began runing, turning the vehicle over and rendering Miss Lucas unconscious. Several men rushed to their rescue. The young lady soon recovered and was not hurt, though very nervous from the shock. Mr. Hawes managed the horse well, and it was his ability in this respect that prevented more serious results from the runaway.

EDITOR HARRIS' IMPRESSIONS

Editor Wade H. Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, was down this way a few days ago. He has the happy faculty of keen observation and the ability to write of what he sees and hears in an interesting, entertainig and edifying manner; in fact, The Star has contended all along that he daily gets up the best editorial page of any paper in the State. So much prefatory of what he writes of Wilmington, Wrightsville Beach, the thirty-foot channel, and kindred subjects of interest to all Eastern Carolina folk. Under the capition, "The Thirty-Foot Channel—Other Matters," he writes:

"The depth of the harbor at Wilmington varies from thirty-three to thirty-nine feet. The harbor could accommodate a pretty good array of warships, but it is not warships we would want to see crowding its water. Rather, it would be a fleet of commercial vessels of the largest and swiftest type. The port of Wilmington would be open to this class of ships were the river channel dredged to a depth of thirty feet to the ocean. The people of Wilmington have addressed themselves to the accomplishment of this work and they should have the aid of the entire State, for the building of Wilmington into a great seaport should be a matter of North Carolina pride. It is already fourth in the list of cotton exporting ports, and with the facilities which larger ships would give, would soon move up to third, or even second, for the commerce of the State would pour into it as through a funnel.

"Is the dredging of a thirty-foot channel practicable? Entirely so and easy of accomplishment. At high tide the shallowest portion of the river is 21 1-2 feet and there are depths from 30 to 34, to 49 to 54, the latter in Southport harbor. The opening of the gateway into the river from the ocean presents no engineering difficulty whatever. The depth on the bar at high water is 22 1-2 feet. The shoal is a narrow strip, not more than half a mile in width, with deep water on either side. A suction dredge could quickly cut a ship-way through it. Then, from Southport harbor up to Wilmington would need to be practically continuous dredging for the purpose of getting a wider chanel and one of uniform depth. The channel should be at least 400 feet wide, so as to give allowance for the filling in at the sides and to insure a permanent channel of at least 100 feet wide and 30 feet deep. At present a ship drawing 29 feet could go by Big Island with ease, but would run into the mud on either side. This condition obtains at other portions of the river, but the 30-foot depths are not worth taking into account as an aid to the proposed channel. The dredging should begin just below Wilmington and extend continuously to Southport. Then the shoal at the bar should be cut in two, and the Cape Fear will float our commerce to the markets of the world.

"No estimate of the cost of the work has been made, but the dredging of the river is of importance to the State and should be done, whatever the cost. If given out by contract, different dredgers taking a certain number of miles each, and with the suction system of dredging, the channel could be opened in no very considerable length of time. The possibilities of the Cape Fear as a commerce floater are beyond calculation. Cotton and lumber are now the principal items, but the port is soon to be put in direct rail connection with the great coal fields, and Wilmington is destined to become one of the greatest coaling ports on the Atlantic coast. No better opportunity for an outlay of money by the government presents itself in the United States than in this work of opening the Cape Fear. We believe all the State will pull with Wilmington for it, and that finally we will get it.

"There are a good many signs of renewed business activity to be seen in Wilmington along the water front and business sections, and of rapid building development in the suburbs. The street car company is doubletracking its lines to accommodate the increased traffic and many new and very handsome store and office buildings show up. Princess street, from Front to Second, has been completely transformed and is a rattling busy-looking place. Wilmington has caught her second commercial wind.

"Proprietor Moore, of the Tarrymoore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach, is still spending money on his hotel, and making it more attractive. He spent the entire Winter there, with never an idle day. He has built a large four-story addition on the east side fronting the sound, and has laid cement walks, bordered with shells. The cement walk at the seashore is a novelty. Mr. Moore got the 'bottom' for it by hauling shells from the sound and pounding them down. His hotel has been brightened inside and out with paint and the people there are happier than ever. He displayed nerve when he built and equipped the big Tarrymoore, for it is a hotel of great dimensions, but he had made correct calculations and has won success. His house is full as long as the season runs.

"The development of Wrightsville Beach is nothing short of amazing The company in control has just completed a long row of cottages facing the car tracks on the sound side of the beach. These cottages are not rough affairs. They are of attractive architectural design, are finished with the care of a city house, and have the advantage of electric lights, water and sewerage. Thus Wrightsville Beach has already developed into a town with a double row of houses. It is going to become a famous Atlantic coast resort and that at a very early date."

There is no need to assure the able editor of The Chronicle that the people of Wilmington highly appreciate his good words for our city. He is a strong and valuable friend to Wilmington and our city has had the benefit of frequent editorials from the pen of Editor Harris, who lends his strong aid whenever the opportunity arises or the occasion presents itself. It is impossible to estimate the good done for Wilmington by a paper so influential as The Chronicle.

JUST AFRIENDLY WORD.

In the wholesale denunciation of corporate interests by the hostile press, the country over, often without regard to the merits of the case in point, it is refreshing sometimes to see the other view presented and to note a friendly word for what everybody will now concede is the "underdog." This is from the Wilson, N. C., Daily Times:

"The Coast Line system of railway is the best managed, and in fact the best property mileage considered there is in the South. It has two very great advantages, a comparative level track, and no sharp curves, in fact much of the line is staight as the flight of an arrow. This line operates about fifty trains a day passing Wilson, giving splendid freight and passenger facilities. There is much that may be said in favor of the Coast Line, and we shall take occassion to deal more elaborately with the question some day in the near future."

THE GUBERNATORIAL RACE.

The Charlotte Chronicle says: "The people who travel on the old Carolina Central are natural born politicians. They talk politics from the time they plunk down into a car seat until they get off. Just now they are all engaged in electing a Governor. It is plain from the talk that Kitchin has been losing ground since he announced his platform. There is a good deal of Craig talk, but Horne is gathering in a strong support."

The situation is getting luminous now. The people are learning enough of the view of the candidates on public questions, in order to enable them to line up. It will be found in the long run that Mr. Horne will make a strong candidate.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Mr. Fairbanks managed to get into the spotlight as a lifesaver hero just when some people thought his boom had gone down for the third time.—Washington Herald.

—From the extravagant manner in which "Fra Elbertus" Hubbard praises his wife it is evident that he doesn't have to get his own breakfast in the morning nor push the lawn mower in the summer.—Washington Post.

—"Anything to beat Kitchin" will be the slogan of lots of Democrats and it will be a merry old fight. Kitchin couldn't ask for a better deal. The rank and file are likely to conclude that he is being imposed on and turn in and gave him a boost that he will remember.—Greensboro Telegram.

—From the press of Burke and Gregory, of this city, there comes to us a little volume entitled: "At Autumn Time," the author which is a North Carlolinian—Mr. Richard Dillard, of Edenton. It is a collection of verses redolent of the deep Autumn woods and of golden fields of ripening grain, which can not fail to strike a responsive chord in the heart and memory of every true lover of nature who may chance to pursue them. In its illustrations and in its general make up the volume is a distinct credit to its publishers.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

TWINKLINGS.

—Man—"Why did you pull that poor boy's ear?" "Boy—I was only holdin' of it—'e was pullin'.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—"Good morning Dowton; I hear you are engaged to Miss Rosenburg. Where is she now?" Dowton—Oh she is at home, congratulating herself.—New Orleans Picayune.

—"Cheer up, there's a silver lining to every cloud." "Well, what good is that? I haven't got an airship."—Pick-Me-Up.

—Patience—I saw her in bathing, and it is a fact that she has web-feet. Patience—There! I always said she was no chicken!—Yonkers Statesman.

—"Now, what can those girls possibly see in him?" "Can't see anything. When he gets back to the city he'll find that they didn't."—Brooklyn Life.

"Darling if you refuse me, I don't know what I am to do." "Well, I'm not to blame for that you should have learned a trade."—New Orleans Picayune.

—Snoggs—My daughter is going to marry young Scroggs. Boggs—Why I thought you hated him. Snoggs—I do. This is a sceme of mine to have my wife become his mother-in-law.—Cleveland Leader.

—"What have you to offer to offset these charges?" asked the court, severely. "Not a thing, Judge," replieded the prisoner, "not a thing unless you can get my lawyer to divide. He seen me first."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Friendship.

Friendship is a vase which when it is flawed by heat or violence or accident may as well be broken at once. It never can be trusted after. The more graceful and ornamental it was the more clearly do we discern the hopelessness of restoring it to its former state. Coarse stones, if they are fractured, may be cemented again; precious ones, never.—Landor.

The Horse He Wanted.

A Scotch farmer bought a horse. Going home he thought a drink would refresh it, so he got a pail of water, but the animal would not take it. On reaching home he gave it a feed of corn, but it would not touch that either. "Ye're the vera horse for me if ye only work!" the farmer was heard to say.—Dundee Advertiser.

Mortification.

"Of course, doctor, German measles are seldom serious?"

"I never met but one fatal case."

"Fatal!"

"Yes. It was a Frenchman, and when he discovered it was German measles that he had mortification set in."

When Cleveland Said "By Gosh!"

"A long legged friend of mine, who may be called Bill Jennings as well as anything else," says Emerson Hough in Appleton's Magazine, "always insisted that he was responsible for the opening of the Cherokee country. 'I went down to Washington,' said he, 'to see Cleveland about it. I went up to the door of Cleveland's house—right at the front door—and I knocked, and I heard Cleveland holler out to me, "Come in!" I went in, and there was Cleveland sittin' in the parlor, with all his cabinet there too. I says to Cleveland, "Cleveland, them Injuns has got to go and them cow men too." I put it to him right plain. Cleveland he listened, and by and by he got up and come and put his hand on my shoulder, and says he, "Bill, by gosh, she pops!" ' "

A Wonderful Fish.

The Bohemians have a proverb, "Every fish has another for prey." The wels (silurus) has them all. This is the largest fresh water fish found in the rivers of Europe except the sturgeon. It often reaches five or six feet in length. It destroys many aquatic birds, and we are assured that it does not spare the human species. On the 3d of July, 1700, a peasant took one near Thorn that had an infant entire in its stomach. They tell in Hungary of children and young girls being devoured on going to draw water, and they even relate that on the frontiers of Turkey a poor fisherman took one that had in its stomach the body of a woman, her purse containing gold and a ring. The fish is even reputed to have been taken sixteen feet long.

The Carlyles' Maid.

The Carlyles had a maid who was untidy, useless in all ways, but "abounding in grace" and in consequent censure of every one above or below her and of everything she could not understand. After a long apostrophe one day as she was bringing in dinner Carlyle ended with, "And this I can tell you—that if you do not carry the dishes straight, so as not to spill the gravy, so far from being tolerated in heaven, you won't be even tolerated on earth."

Pat Was Surprised.

Two Irishmen got the contract to clean a well. Pat tied a rope around his middle, and Mike lowered him into the well. When Pat was through cleaning, Mike began to hoist him up, but when he was halfway up he called to his companion in the well:

"Hould on a minnit, Pat, till I spit on me hands," and let go of the rope. Naturally Pat descended again a little too rapidly for comfort. When Mike realized his blunder, he ran to the well and called down:

"Pat, Pat, are ye dead?"

And his partner replied:

"No, ye brainless spalpeen; Oi'm not dead, begorry, but Oi'm spachless wid surprise at ye."—Judge's Library.

A Policeman's Strategy.

When Captain W. E. Weber was a patrolman a clothing store upon his beat was robbed one night. The thief had taken off his own old clothes and left them in the store. He had put on a new suit and worn it away. The old suit was that of a boy about fifteen years old.

Weber gathered up the clothes and took them to the old fire patrol house at Seventh avenue and Wyandotte street. He put them upon the floor and, turning the hose on them, drenched them with water. Then he went down to the junction, where at that time the newsboys congregated in great numbers. He gathered a dozen of them around him.

"Boys," he said, "the police found some clothes down on the river bank this morning. It looks like a boy had been drowned. I want all of you to come up to the fire station and look at the clothes, Maybe you can tell me who they belonged to."

No sooner had the "newsies" gathered around the pile of water soaked clothes than one little fellow spoke up:

"Them's Nifty Smith's. I seen him wearin' them red galluses, an' he sewed that patch on the knee there hisself."

Other boys corroborated this story. In less than an hour the officer had corralled Nifty and made him confess to the robbery.—Kansas City Star.

Great Laughers.

The giant laughers have been men—Shakespeare and Rabelais. I do not regard Cervantes and Sterne as laughers. They are smilers. They are not jolly roarers and guffawers. They are not fat, rotund, jovial hilarities. They are thin, lean, ironic smiles. A smile is a diluted laugh. Sterne is a diluted Rabelais.—James Douglas in M. A. P.

Natural Enough.

"They say that Bradley goes on like mad since he inherited his vast wealth."

"What does he do?"

"Oh, he acts like one possessed."—Lippincott's.

Long Live The King.

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quckly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Buffalo Bill Coming.

The Raleigh Evening Times says: "The Buffalo Bill Show has cancelled its date for Raleigh next fall and will not show here on October 23rd, as previously announced. The reason is said to be that the show does not carry enough helpers to faciliate quick moving. Wilmington is the only city in North Carolina that will see Buffalo Bill's Wild West exhibition."

The man pursued was finally caught, but he proved to be not the man wanted. Mr. Huggins has quite a severe wound, but is not necessarily incapcmfwypSa

In reports made to President Seymour, of the Alabama section of the Cotton Association, it is indicated that the cotton crop in Alabama with average conditions from now on, will make sixty-five to seventy per cent. of a crop. With ideal conditions 80 per cent. may be made.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires; neatness, clear eyes, clean, smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at R. R. PRITCHARD ON SCENS asked that the court pass on the motion pending to quash the indictment as to the Southern Railway, on the ground that no crime could be charged to the Southern under the statute since the act expressly prescribed that the railway corporation failing to sell tickets at the 2 1-4 cent rate should be liable to a money penalty of $500 in cash in each case, and an additional criminal indictment does not apply.

After lenghthy argument Judge Long overruled the motion reserving the right to take it up and pass on it finally later in the proceeding, if the question is properly presented. The court then took a recess to 3 o'clock. By the time the jury had been empaneled it lacked only ten minutes of time for the court to take a recess for dinner. The bill of indictment was read by the solicitor and the recess followed, the judge charging the jury at length to not discuss the case or read any newspapers.

The matter of taking testimony for the prosecution began immediately on the reconvening of court. W. F. Jones, of Cary, had purchased a ticket on which the indictment was based. He said the prisoner Green, had in person sold it to him. He identified the "refund coupon," given with the ticket. The cross-examination by Mr. Thom was to show that in addition to the ticket he received a coupon by special contract, a thing of value.

J. O. Jones, a clerk under Agent Green in ticket office here was introduced and through him the State brought about the introduction of a printed letter of instructions from the general passenger agent of the Southern to continue the sale of tickets at the old rate with coupon attached. The examination was hard fought on technical points and on cross-examination. Mr. Thom again brought his point that in the sale of tickets at the old rate, the money was for the ticket plus the coupon.

Ex-Governor Aycock anounced that the State would rest its case. Counsel for the defence asked an intermission for consultation. Fifteen minutes were given. On re-assembling, Judge Long said it was growing late and he adjourned court to 9:30, when instructions could be filed and all argument presented.

The Asheville Cases.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Asheville, July 18.—James H. Woods district passenger agent and Ticket Agent O. C. Wilson, of the Southern Railway, who were arrested late yesterday afternoon after the departure of Judge Pritchard, for Raleigh, were today found guilty in the police court of selling passenger tickets in disregard of the new rate law and each was sentenced to thirty days on the chain gang. Mr. Wood is a member of the Board of Aldermen of this city. Little doubt is felt that some way will be found to save Wood and Wilson from serving this sentence.

Charlotte, N. C., July 18.—The case against City Ticket T. J. Witherspoon, of the Southern Railway here, against whom a warrant was sworn out yesterday for charging more than 2 1-4 cents for railroad tickets, was withdrawn today in the recorder's court, for the reason that similar cases are being tested at Asheville and Raleigh.

THE PARDONING POWER.

Governor Grants Some; Refuses Others—Jim Marine.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 18.—Governor Glenn has commuted the sentence of death to life imprisonment in the case of Ruffin Fuller, in Granville county, under sentence of death for criminal assault, the reason given being that the Governor is not willing to have life taken in punishment on testimony of such a woman as the prosecutrix seems to be.

A pardon is granted Jno. E. Cox in Wayne county, serving eight months on the public roads for too severe whipping of a negro boy whom the Governor says appears to be a very bad fellow.

Nine applications for pardons are refused by the Governor. Geo. Griffin serving twelve years for manslaughter from Nash county; Will Hunt, serving four years from Forsythe county for larceny; Jas. Grant, serving 15 years from Iredell county, for murder in the second degree; Sam Carter, serving five months in Stanly county for retailing liquor; Joe Duffy, serving two years from Rowan county for retailing liquor; Jas. Marine, serving two years on the roads in New Hanover, for sevret assault; Clyde Trayhorn, serving two years in Durham county for larceny; Geo. Graham serving two years in Henderson county for larceny, Sam White, serving three years in Cabarrus county, for larceny.

PAL VAUGHN TO LEAVE.

Mayor Agreed to Let Him Go Yesterday Morning in Court.

Pal Vaughn, the white printer arrested Wednesday afternoon on a charge of having assaulted his wife by slapping her at their home near Third and Walnut streets and who was also charged with vagrancy, was arraigned before the Mayor yesterday at noon. Mrs. Vaughn had previously seen the Mayor in behalf of her husband, and stated that she thought it would be best for the man to leave town, where, perhaps, the temptations woud not be so great for him. The Mayor sharply lectured Vaughn for his conduct and told him of the conversation he had with his wife, offering him an opportunity of going elsewhere to get work. He accepted the offer readily, and promised to leave last night for Norfolk.

The other cases before the Mayor yesterday were not specially interesting. Ethel Holland, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent to the farm for thirty days. Son Lockwood and Berkley Ellerbee, small colored boys, charged with disorderly conduct were allowed to go in consideration of their age.

Transportation charges paid on purchases of $5.00 and over.

He was released on $10,000 bail, pending the determination of an appeal before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, Va.

Passenger train No. 36, on the Southern Railway, which left Atlanta at midnight, was partially wrecked at Richland, S. C., at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The locomotive and postal and express cars were derailed, the locomotive being turned over. The fireman and sevral passngers are said to have been slightly hurt. A statement is given out from Southern headquarters at Washington that the wreck was caused by a switch that had been tampered with at Richlands.

TENNESSEE BANK SHORT.

Illness of Cashier Brings Out Apparent Discrepancies—Examination.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Callatin, Tenn., July 18.—The doors of the People's National Bank are closed pending an investigation of the condition of the bank. Some irregularities were discovered several days ago, and President Payne telegraphed to Baltimore for an examiner who is now auditing the books. The amount of the alleged shortage is not known, but the directors are confident the bank is solvent. It is believed the bank will soon resume business.

A discovery of $39,000 has been found in the accounts. The discovery was made by the assistant cashier during the absence of Cashier W. G. Harris, who is ill at the home of his father-in-law, Judge William Hall. The latter, in a statement made for his son-in-law, asserts that Harris is straight with the bank and but for his illness there would have been no trouble. Of the shortage, 29,000 is said to be unaccounted for in discounting paper, $7,000 in ordinary accounts and $3,000 in unidentified entries. The discounts unless they should be forgeries, will not represent a loss to the bank, the holders suffering. It is, therefore, probable that actual loss to stockholders will not exceed $10,000.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT BY NEGRO

Used Knife on Minister and Mob is Pursuing.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Augusta, Ga., July 18.—A special from Greenwood, S. C., says:

Considerable excitement prevails at Troy over a murderous assault upon Rev. F. R. Bradley, by John Suber, a negro farm hand. The negro was ordered to do some farm work by Bradley and was reprimanded for not attending to it, whereupon he attacked Bradley with a knife. Suber escaped and nearly every man in the community is scouring the woods in search of him.

Greenwood county blood hounds have been taken to the scene, Sheriff McMillan leaving Greenwood in an automobile.

At late report is to the effect that the negro is surrounded in a swamp near Troy and will undoubtedly be captured. Bradley may recover.

Our Bodies Are Machines.

How many people, I wonder, ever pause to consider that their bodies are merely machines to do work, furnaces in which necessary fuel is burned, workshops in which wornout parts are supplied and storerooms in which fuel and food are laid away for use when needed? Further, like any other piece of apparatus, the body works better under certain circumstances. Its fires burn better with fuels of certain sorts, mixed in certain proportions, and it cannot keep in perfect condition unless furnished with proper materials. Man thinks he eats because he is hungry; he really eats because his body is crying out for building materials with which to repair the waste that is always going on and for fuel to keep itself warm, and it is rather "finicky" as to the supply it wants for each of these purposes. At a pinch it can use almost anything digestible for either, but it groans and complains and punishes its unfortunate possessor if it is not properly treated.—Crittenden Marriott in St. Nicholas.

Drawing Room.

A curious and regrettable revival of the word "draw" in the sense of "withdraw" occurs in "drawing room." Here the original meaning of the word is lost because of its lamentable pronunciation by the uneducated. Nobody, hearing it mentioned as "droying room" at its best or as "droring room" at its worst," would suspect it of being a room to which to withdraw for relaxation. Most words of the kind, though, have no better claim to our admiration, and many have a worse one to our sense of language. "Parlor" is an ugly growth from the old monasterial "parloir," or room where speaking was allowed, and "boudoir," that early Victorian expression of gentility, began by being a room to sulk in. "Sitting room" is a strange instance of the confusion of cause and effect, and so is "living room." We come back to "drawing room" as to honest words, at least.—London Notes and Queries.

Du Maurier and the Fenian Leader.

When John O'Leary, the Fenian leader, was released from prison in 1870 after spending five of the twenty years to which he was condemned for a felony he went to Paris, where he spent the next fifteen years of his exile. The revolutionary leader used to tell how when crossing in the packet to France he met Du Maurier, then a young man, going to Paris to study art. They became warm friends, lodging together in the same building, where they became acquainted with two other artists, whom Du Maurier afterward made famous in his popular story "Trilby" as The Laird and The Baronet. It was to O'Leary, who had been a medical student in Paris long before he threw in his fortunes with the Fenian movement, that Du Maurier owed his first glimpse of bohemian life in the French capital.—Westminster Gazette.

It Was All Right.

They had evidently been quarreling before entering the Sutter street car at the ferry.

"I would thank you, Mr. Johnson, not to sit by me!" she said icily.

"Oh, Lucy, I'll never go with her again—never, never, dearie!"

Gradually the harsh tones melted to soft, endearing phrases. The car had become very crowded. It stopped at Van Ness.

The conductor, wedging among passengers midway of the aisle, could not see the rear steps. With his hand on the bell cord, he suddenly yelled:

"How is it back there now?"

"It's all right. We've made up again," impulsively responded the young man.

"Oh, Willard, he didn't mean us!"—San Francisco Chronicle.

Too Much Curiosity.

A dangerous operation was being performed upon a woman. Old Dr. A., a quaint German, full of kindly wit and professional enthusiasm, had several younger doctors with him. One of them was administering the ether. He became so interested in the old doctor's work that he withdrew the cone from the patient's nostrils, and she half roused and rose to a sitting posture, looking with wild eyed amazement over the surroundings. It was a critical period, and Dr. A. did not want to be interrupted. "Lay down, dere, woman," he commanded gruffly. "You haf more curiosity as a medical student."

The Result.

A nervous passenger on the first day of the outward voyage importuned the captain to know what would be the result if the steamer should strike an iceberg while it was plunging through the fog. "The iceberg would move right along, madam," the captain replied courteously, "just as if nothing had happened." And the old lady was greatly relieved.

The Minister's Text.

A little girl came home from church the other day and was asked what the minister's text was. "Don't be afraid, and I will get you a bedquilt," was the astonishing answer.

Investigation proved that the central thought of the sermon had been, "Fear not, and I will send you a comforter."—Technical World.

—The Bladen County Board of Commissioners have authorized the immediate sale of $5,000 worth Brown Marsh Road Improvement Bonds.

—Mr. R. S. Smith, of Albermarie has been appointed by Governor Glenn on the State Board of Elections to fill the unexpired term of Mr. J. R. Llewelen, deceased.

—Lumberton, July 17: Dr. R. B. Beckwith is suffering from injuries received from his horse running away He was standing taking some articles from the buggy, when the horse became frightened and ran, throwing him down and breaking his collar bone.

—Charlotte Observer: "Judge Walter H. Neal, of Laurinburg, was a Charlotte visitor yesterday. He came on business for the Colonial Screen Company, a manufacturing concern that he is organizing in his town. The plant will make high grade door and window screens."

—Greensboro, July 17: The railroad ticket agents, it is reported, are beginning to make themselves disagreeable to the higher officials in having to bear the brunt of violating the law, and take all the cussing they are getting, besides running risks of getting in jail. Wholesale resignations are being seriously considered.

—Fayetteville, July 17: A hurry telephone call came today from Beards Station to Sheriff Watson to come with his bloodhounds immediately, and he went at once. The dogs were put on the trail of a man suspected of breaking into the house of W. A. Beard, about which he was seen loafing, and he was captured after a short chase.

—Greensboro, July 17: Rev. Dr. H. W. Battle, who recently resigned the pastorage of the First Baptist Church of this city, to take effect October 1st, has accepted a call tendered him by the First Baptist Church of Kinston. Members of the committee came to Greensboro a short time ago and had a personal interview with Dr. Battle, tendering him the call under circumstances which were most gratifying to him. He did not give any decided answer, however, until today.

—Charlotte Chronicle: "Down in the truck farming section cotton and corn are growing like mad. A six-foot man can lose himself from sight in many of the corn fields, while cotton is passing the knee high stage. There has been too much rain in the past few days for comfort but a return of the clear, hot weather will save the day. In Anson, Union and Mecklenburg, cotton is decidedly backward, but the stands are good, the plants vigorous and with the right sort of weather they will make good."

—Lumberton, July 17: Miss Mattie McWhite, of this county, came near receiving fatal injuries yesterday while driving into town. Meeting her was a pair of runaway mules hitched to a wagon. They ran into the buggy, threw Miss McWhite out, and the wagon wheel ran over her neck. The mules halted just as the wheel rolled on her neck and it had to be lifted off. She did not lose conscionness, and when taken to the hospital for examination seemed to have escaped unhurt.

—The Pender Chronicle notes with pleasure that Mr. G. G. Sherman, the well known boat builder, is at Mr. W. L. Nunalee's building the young Messrs. Nunalee a beautiful hull for a gasoline engine, which will be a beautiful boat when completed, and will be kept in Moore's Creek at the old Battle Grounds, and will add much to the place, as it will be kept there for a pleasure boat for those who seek such pleasure. Her name will be the Slocum, as we have been told, in honor of that heroic woman.

—Charlotte Chronicle: "There is more brownstone in Anson county than in any other county in the United States. Charlotte's city hall and some of Charlotte's finest residences are built of it. But that is not all. So abundant is this fine building stone that all the culverts along the old Carolina Central division of the Seaboard are built of it. Not only that, but miles and miles of Seaboard retaining walls are built of the finest quality of brownstone. Some day the stone quarry men will get to work right in Anson and bring this most valuable of building stone into public appreciation."

A Wonderful Happening.

Port Byron, N. Y., has witnessed one of the most remarkable cases of healing ever recorded. Amos F. King, of that place says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured a sore on my leg with which I had suffered over 80 years. I am now eighty five." Guaranteed to cure all sores, by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist, 25c.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy; New Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 18.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled during today's session and ruled particularly weak in the late trading. The close was barely steady at a net decline of 10 to 24 points. Sales were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The opening was steady at unchanged price to a decline of 4 points and after some trifling irregularity the market worked lower still under liquidation, realizing by recent buyers and a renewal of bear pressure which had to encourage lower cables than due, good weather over the belt, and expectations of a bearish private condition report at midday. Before this was issued prices howed a net loss of about 11@14 points on the active months. The report showing an improvement in condition of a little over 6 per cent for the past two weeks had little effect on the market which shortly afterwards advanced 5 to 6 points on buying by local professionals who were influenced by a bearish circular from the concentrated short interest as was the case yesterday but in today's instance this circulation was followed by pressure rather than covering by the leading bears, and during the late session the market was very weak and unsettled. The close was within a point or so of the lowest on the active months. The bear leader claims to expect a decline owing to the absence of public demand, the improvement in the condition of the crop,the depressing influence likely to be exerted by the large local stock and indicati ns of a reaction in general commercial lines owing to the declines in iron and copper and the light demand reported for various staples.

Receipts at the ports today 1,349 bales against 1,651 last week and 2,422 last year. For the week 15,000 bales against 15,302 last week and 25,197 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 66 bales against 340 last year and at Houston 235 bales against 185 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, middling upland 12.95; middling gulf 13.20; sales 3,105 bales.

RICHMOND DAY AT JAMESTOWN

Thirty Thousand People Attend Celebration By Virginia's Historic Capital City.

JUDGE A. B. PARKER SPEAKS

Distinguished Democratic Nominee For President Greeted With Great Enthusiasm—Exposition Warmly Commended by Resolution.

(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Norfolk, Va., July 18.—The largest crowd that assembled at the Jamestown Exposition since Georgia Day, when President Roosevelt was the centre of attraction, was there today incident to the Richmond (Va.) Day celebration, which occurred under fair skies and most favorable circumstances, notwithstanding the intense heat. The many Richmonders who arrived last night, were joined during the forenoon by large contingents, which came from the Virginia capital city by steamer and train. Governor Swanson, of Virginia, and John Skelton Williams, the Richmond financier and banker, who was the orator of the day, received Mayor McCarthy, of Richmod, who was accompanied by an official party of 440 including the members of the Richmond City Council. The party was escorted by the Richmond Blues.

Mayor McCarthy had been met at the steamboat landing near the ground by President Tucker, of the Exposition, and as the two stepped from their carriage to greet the governor and Mr. Williams, an amusing incident occurred. The mayor started to cross the military line, when a lieutenant halted him and by force compelled him to return. The mayor, undaunted, proceeded farther down and out through the line. The exercises of the day occurred at the reviewing stand at Lee Parade grounds. President Tucker made the address of welcome, and Governor Swanson welcomed the Richmond visitors on behalf of the State. Mayor McCarthy made a brief response and introduced Mr. Williams, who made a notable speech of an hour or more, most of this being of special interest to Richmonders.

The exercises were followed by a military parade across the Lee parade grounds.

An official reception was held by Mayor McCarthy at the Richmond city building. It is estimated that over 30,000 people are on the grounds today, with over one-third of these from Richmond.

The feature of Richmond Day celebration was the adoption of the following resolutions offered by Li Z. Morris:

"The people of Richmond having assembled at the Jamestown Exposition on this 18th day of July, 1907, being designated as 'Richmond Day,' desire to place upon record their hearty and unqualified commendation of this great enterprise. We extend to our fellow citizens of Eastern Virginia our congratulations and appreciation for their spirit, ceaseless energy and patriotic devotion, which enables them to fitingly celebrate the great event of 300 years ago and gather together this magnificent display of the world's historical and commercial products. Richmond greets the cities of this entire country and commends this exposition worthy of a visit from their citizens and cordially invites all visitors to make their route include the 'City of the James.'"

The other feature was during the course of a luncheon in the Alps restaurant to visiting officials, when Mr. Tucker proposed a toast to Judge Parker. It was drunk standing, much enthusiasm. Responding, the Sage of Esopus, paid a gflowing tribute to the Jamestown Exposition.

Seated near the Tucker party was the Richmond Blues Battalion who were conspicious in their shouting when the former Presidential candidate stepped forward and Judge Parker remembered them in his remarks. He said in part:

"I count it a great pleasure to be here to meet my friends, Governor Swanson, Lieutenant Governor Ellyson and other distinguished officials of this State, and I count it a very great pleasure to be here—Richmond Day—when your beautiful capital is helping to celebrate your magnificent exposition. And I regard it as being particularly fortunate that I may be see that glorious organization, the Richmond Blues, a century old and none of them not unworthy of the ancestors of the republic who landed here three hundred years ago. How surprised would be those early settlers if any could see the wonderful strides that have been taken on these shores since they est foot upon them. Three hundred years have passed away since the ancestors of this country landed here and in that time there has been a vast development, the greatest the world has ever known. It is the duty of every American to stand by the growth of his country and to protect it."

TWO MEN FATALLY SHOT.

Four Men Settle Old Grudge In Kentucky.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Lexington, Ky., July 18.—In a pistol fight that took place today in a saloon at Pound Gap, on the Kentucky Virginia line, two men were fatally shot and another seriously wounded. William Robinson and John Centers, between whom an old grudge existed, met and Centers opened fire. Several shots were exchanged and Centers fell mortally wounded. Half an hour later "Babe" Stewart and Isaac Bentley met and began shooting. Bentley was fatally and Stewart seriously wounded.

CLOUD BURSTS PLAYED HAVOC

Five Deaths and Half Million in Property Destroyed in West Virginia.

MANY HOUSES SWEPT AWAY

Rivers and Creeks Raging and Bridges Have Disappeared—Three Miles of Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Track Destroyed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Baltimore, July 18.—A special to The News from Grafton, W. Va., says that from three to five lives lost and half a million dollars damage is the result of a cloud burst and heavy storm yesterday between Grafton and Tunnelton. Among the dead are Claudius Wolfe, of Evansville, and Frank Gibbons, of Newburg.

More than half a million dollars damage resulted from cloudbursts, storms and floods last night at Newburg and along the Cheat river Valley in Preston county. Houses were washed away the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is out of commission and telegraph and telephone wires are all down. At Fairmont the Monongahela river is at a high stage and freight and other property has been removed. At Kingwood three miles of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad track was washed away. The United Brethren Church at Evansville was overturned and swept down stream.

Coleman Morris, aged 30 years, a farmer of Big Isaac, this county, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Heavy rain at Weston early caused the highest waters along Folk Creek and the West Fork river into which it empties, near the town, since the flood of 1888. All the bridges across Folk Creek and other property along the creek and river, were carried off in the flood. A number of residents had to use row boats to get to and from their homes.

A sudden rise in the Monongahela river during the night wrecked the new bridge between Monessen and Charleroi. All the false work was swept away. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

TELEGRAPHERS STAND FIRM.

Refuse Concessions of Two Companies at San Francisco.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Oakland, Cal., July 18.—The striking commercial telegraphers, at a regular union meeting today, refused, by a standing vote, to accept concessions as framed by their national executive committee. The Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies' concessions were declined. Thy ordered 25 per cent. increase of pay after the telegraphers were at work and would take back all but three of the strikers. The Postal would reinstate 80 per cent. of the strikers.

President Small this afternoon telegraphed the result of the union's action to headquarters at Chicago.

New York, July 18.—E. J. Nally, vice president and general manager of the Postal Telegraph Company, announced today that he had authorized Superintendent Storer, of the Postal's San Francisco office to re-employ all the telegraphers who went on strike from that office, provided they make individual application and are not objectionable to the superintendent. The men would be required to promise, Mr. Nally said, to give faithful service and discontinue all agitation and interference with the company's business. He notified Mr. Storer that the same salaries and conditions as before the strike would prevail. Mr. Nally said he took this action at the request of United States Labor Commissioner Neill.

New York, July 18.—When he learned that the striking telegraphers in a meeting at Oakland, Cal., today had voted to refuse concessions offered by the Western Union Company, including, it was stated, "a 25 per cent. increase of pay after the telegraphers were at work," President Robert C. Clowry, of the Western Union, said that he wished to unqualifiedly deny that any advance in salaries had been promised the telegraphers.

WAS CAUSED BY FLARE BACK.

Investigation of Terrible Accident on Battleship Georgia.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 18.—The naval court of inquiry in the case of the explosion on the Georgia will find that the accident resulted from a "flare back," meaning that when the breech of the 8-inch gun was thrown open it had been discharged, some shreds of burning cloth or unconsumed gas was driven into the turret and upon the powder about to be inserted for the next charge.

The following telegram from Captain McCrea, of the battleship Georgia, dated today and sent through the commandant of the Boston navy yard, was made public at the Navy Department.

"Telegram expressing grief over the unfortunate accident to the Georgia received and published. All are gratified with sympathy expressed which lightens our sorrow. Full reports were sent through Admiral Thomas which will be supplemented by report of board.

"Meanwhile no individual case of great heroism which saved this ship has been known. The handling room crew responded immediately to the orders of the officer in command, Boatswain Murray, closed the doors, removing exposed charges, and drowning the burning powder which fell from the upper turrets. Did the right thing at the right time and steadied his men."

PROFESSOR HAU SEEMS DOOMED

Man Who Held Chair in George Washington University Answers Questions.

MURDERED MOTHER-IN-LAW

Motive Was to Hush Scandal With His Wife's Sister—Proven That He Bought False Beard and Wore It.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Carlsruhe, July 18.—Considerable progress was made today at the trial of Karl Hau, the former professor in George Washington University, who is charged with the murder of his wife's mother, Frau Molitor, at Baden Baden. Hau, who was closely interrogated by the presiding judge, finally yielded to persuasion and consented to answer some of the questions on which yesterday he kept silence. He admitted sending a dispatch from Paris calling Frau Molitor to that city, an admission that he had already refused to make, but he did so, he said, in order to expedite the case and to do away with the necessity of having handwriting experts take the stand.

Later he told the court that he sent this dispatch following a dispute with his wife because of his alleged relations with her sister, Olga, in order to arrange for the departure of Olga, but the presiding judge declared that this was a very weak explanation and not in accordance with circumstances previously related.

A barber of Frankfort testified to making a false beard for Hau and further that Hau put the beard on in his shop on November 6th, the day of the murder, about noon, and started with his baggage for the railway station. A woman who conducted a confectionery shop in Baden-Baden, described as far as she was able the appearance of a man wearing a heavy beard, who she saw acting in a distracted manner in front of the Molitor villa in that city between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock. The description in a measure answered that given by Olga Molitor at the trial yesterday of the man who shot her mother in the park on the evening of the same day. This witness said that when she heard of the tragedy she declared the murderer could be none other than the man whom she had seen loitering in front of the Moliter house.

Fellow students of Hau at Freiburg University gave evidence as to the prisoner's general immoral conduct.

Southern Wholesale Grocers Conclude Sessions at Baltimore.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Baltimore, July 18.—The annual convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association adjourned today to meet at Asheville, N. C., next July. President J. A. VanHoose, of Birmingham, Ala., was reelected, as were also all the present officers and members of the advisory board except first vice president, G. M. Thompson, of New Orleans, who was replaced by Henry Forcheimer, of Mobile, Ala.

The position of Secretary was left to be filled later by the advisory board. Mr. VanHoose, who has served as president for six years, was opposed by D. M. White, of Memphis, Tenn. The latter's candidacy, however, aroused considerable resentment among the VanHoose adherents and an acrimonious discussion lasting nearly two hours preceded the voting Van Hoouse won on the first ballot 110 to 50. The objection to Mr. White seemed based mainly on the fact that he was a comparatively new comer in the ranks of the wholesale growers.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Two Big Machines Come Together With Fearful Result.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 18.—While rushing along at express train speed, two automobiles, filled with merry markers returning from Coney Island, crashed head-on early today on the dimly lighted Ocean Parkway, and as a consequence one man is dead and two others are fatally injured. The dead man, Thomas F. Donovan, of New York, was impaled on the spokes of his own machine. The injured are Chapman Ropes, of Morristown, N. J., and an unidentified man.

A third automobile, which came flying along the avenue immediately after the accident, barely escaped colliding with the wreckage.

THE STEUNENBERG CASE.

Argument on Admissibility of Evidence Presented to Court.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boise, Idaho, July 18.—Argument on the admissibility of points of evidence today followed an announcement from the defense that it had no further witnesses to offer in behalf of William D. Haywood, charged with murdering Frank Steuenberg. The jury was not brought into court, Judge Wood having been informed by counsel of their decision to rest without offer of surrebuttal. Clarence Darrow spoke for an hour and a half of the morning session. Senator Borah replied in the afternoon and was followed by E. F. Richardson. Judge Wood will probably announce his decision tomorrow.

The point argued was the proposal to exclude from consideration by the jury the evidence offered by the defense to show by proof of deportation of miners from, and the employment of detectives in the Cripple Creek region of Colorado that a conspiracy was formed among the mine owners and the citizens of the region to prevent the employment of members of the Western Federation of Miners. The position taken by the Haywood defense was that Harry Orchard was employed by the mine owners' association through detectives to commit crimes which were then charged to the Federation to arouse public opinion against the Union workers and it, therefore, followed that if Colorado evidence for the State was admitted, the defense had the right to show a counter conspiracy.

The reply of the State was that the defense had failed legally to connect their case in particular, and therefore, the evidence merely confused the issue. In the absence of the jury the argument gave counsel an opportunity to take a wide range in the commenting on the methods employed by both sides. Mr. Darrow was impassioned and vituperative. He bitterly assailed Orchard and the Pinkertons.

KOREAN KING IS WRATHY.

Indignant at Request for His Abdication—Will be Dethroned.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Seoul, Korea, July 18.—The cabinet ministers, including the newly appointed household minister, have resigned. It is reported that the Emperor was very angry at his ministers on account of their having advised him to abdicate. He said to them that he occupied the throne by right inherited from his ancestors and that his subjects had no authority to advise his dethronement, much less to do so with the support of foreigners.

Marquis Ito in compliance with the Emperor's urgent desire to see him, even for a short time, proceeded to the palace this afternoon.

Tokio, July 19.—A dispatch from Seoul says that the Emperor convened the elder statesmen at 1 o'clock this morning. The cabinet ministers waited in an adjoining room while the Emperor conferred with the elder statesmen.

After a two hours conference His Majesty finally yielded and made up his mind to abdicate. It was decided to hold abdication ceremony at 10 o'clock this morning.

Much unrest prevails about the palace and at another place a crowd of 2,000 is assembled. A portion of this crowd assaulted the office of the daily Kokumin but the mob was dispersed before heavy damage was inflicted.

LUMBERMEN TO MEET.

South Carolina Mills Will Withdraw From Former Alliance.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., July 18.—Under call of H. J. McLaurin, Jr., and others, formerly of the old South Carolina Pine Lumber Association which last year amalgamated with the North Carolina Pine Lumber Association, combining under one head, practically all the larger lumber mills in Virginia North Carolina, South Carolina, and Eastern Maryland, representatives of South Carolina mills meet at Sumter, S. C., July 23, with a view to withdrawing from the North Carolina Pine Lumber Association, and reorganizing the South Carolina Association. This is declared to be because of the fact that certain of the South Carolina mill men see only a continuation of the South Carolina representation as a minority in the larger body, which controls 175 miles, of which fifty or sixty are in South Carolina.

Increases ranging from $2.50 to $10 per month were granted the telegraphers of the Queen and Crescent system by a re-adjustment that was completed at Cincinnati yesterday. The new scale will go into effect August 1. Between 200 and 300 men are affected.
